[As usual, a disclaimer, the Pagan Information network text File Library Consists entirely of contributed material froma variety of sources and we do not take responsibility for their content or value to the Reader.
We are a collection and archiving and distribution point for these files, and do not edit except where a problem with document structure (non-ASCII) occurs and cannot be otherwise corrected.]

The Pagan Information Network is an activity of the Wonderland BBS 508-663-6220 in Billerica MA and updates and new collections can be received by calling us at 1200 or 2400 baud.

Donations of material on disk (standard 360k or 720k disks only, please) can be mailed to me, as well as any and all financial donations (Which are at present desperately needed to keep the Library and the BBS and all software developement work for the Pagan Community continuing - without funds we will fade away and cease to be able to contribute) at:
